FACULTY POSITION IN THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS SESSIONAL INSTRUCTORS

The School of Business is hiring part-time Sessional instructors who are able to teach undergraduate courses in the Bachelor of Business Administration degree (3-year, 4-year) in a variety of modalities (in-person, blended, virtual) in upcoming semesters, including Spring 2025, Fall 2025, Winter 2026 - with a possibility of ongoing part-time appointments, depending on successful review of teaching.

Responsibilities

Sessional faculty members are expected to prepare the course and syllabus in close collaboration with administration. Instructors will prepare all types of assignments and report continuous and final grades in a timely manner and manage all other matters associated with the successful completion of the course.

Please refer to the Booth University College Calendar for a list of all Business courses: Academic Calendar - Booth University College, pp. 114-120.

The School of Business is particularly interested in applicants whose teaching specializations align with one or more of the following upper-level courses:

- BUS240 Human Resource Management
- BUS230 Marketing
- BUS393 Project Management
- BUS260 Production Operations
- BUS330 Public Relations

Qualifications:

- Minimum MBA (preferred), with specialization streams and postsecondary teaching experience of three years (min.)
- Equivalent professional qualifications and teaching experience will be considered (depending on expertise)
- Satisfactory criminal record check
- Fully supportive of the integration of faith and learning in a Christian university-level setting and a commitment to the Mission of Booth University College
- Valid to work in Canada

About Booth University College

Booth University College is an undergraduate Christian institution centrally located in Winnipeg. We are rooted in The Salvation Army's history of meeting the needs of the most vulnerable in society and are committed to "Education for a Better World" as described in our mission statement:

William and Catherine Booth University College, a Christian university college rooted in The Salvation Army's Wesleyan theological tradition, brings together Christian faith, rigorous scholarship and a passion for service. The University College educates students to understand the complexities of our world, to develop the knowledge and skills necessary to be active contributors to society, and to know how Christian faith compels them to bring hope, social justice and mercy into our world.
